

Concerned about a child's development?

Refer to ABC Early Intervention for free BabyNet Early Intervention for children birth to 3 in Greenville, Anderson and Spartanburg counties, SC.

Who may qualify

- Speech or physical delays (not talking or walking yet)
- Feeding concerns
- Born premature or with a low birth weight
- Genetic condition or diagnosis, such as Down syndrome or autism
- Vision or hearing difficulty
- Challenging behaviors

What we provide

Special Instruction: caregiver coaching with evidence-based strategies for daily routines

Service Coordination: connecting families to childcare, insurance, therapy and community resources

Transition Support: planning for age 3, starting around 27 months

Why partners choose us

- Services are at no cost to families
- Services happen at home, childcare, a park or the library
- Interpretation provided for families who need it
- Led by Sally Cannon, Masters in Early Childhood Education & 17 years experience in Early Intervention

How to refer

1. Anyone can refer: parents, doctors, childcare providers and caregivers.
2. Refer online at babynet.scdhhs.gov/prebabynet or call the BabyNet Central Referral Team at (866) 512-8881.
3. Say: "I would like services with ABC Early Intervention."

ABC Early Intervention
All because we Care

864-962-7070
sally@abcearlyintervention.com
www.abcearlyintervention.com